Mission Statement

The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Core Value Focus

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary has five core values: Doctrinal Integrity, Spiritual Vitality, Mission Focus, Characteristic Excellence, and Servant Leadership. These values shape both the context and manner in which all curricula are taught, with “doctrinal integrity” and “mission focus” especially highlighted in this course. The core value focus for the 2018-19 year is Doctrinal Integrity: “Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. Our confessional commitments are outlined in the Articles of Religious Belief and the Baptist Faith & Message 2000. “

Core Competencies addressed:

1. Biblical Exposition—the course will show how God’s Word addresses the religions in the world.
2. Christian Theological Heritage—the history of interaction between Islam and Christianity will be explored to provide a proper foundation for current engagement.
3. Disciple Making—a biblically-based, Christ-centered approach will be applied to understand how to disciple Muslim background believers

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course is an introduction to the religion of Islam, including history, core tenants, Islamic sects, The Qur’an, the life of Mohammed, and key doctrines. The class will have special emphasis on understanding the Islamic world in relation to the West and missions strategies to Islamic people groups.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES (COURSE OBJECTIVES):

The student who successfully completes this course should:

- Understand Islamic community, history and beliefs
- Apply biblical truth in response to Islamic issues
- Communicate biblical truth in a caring way with Muslims

COURSE TEACHING METHODOLOGY (or Methods)

The course will be taught by weekly reading, video and listening assignments, weekly quizzes, weekly posts and interaction on the Discussion Board, two required book reports, a research paper on an appropriate subject approved by the teacher, and two exams, a mid-term and a final.

REQUIRED TEXTS:

- 1) Swartley, Keith. Encountering the World of Islam. Colorado Springs: Authentic, 2005.
- 3). Farah, Cesear. Islam. Hauppauge, NY: Barron's, 2003.
- 4) Any copy of the Koran, but suggestions are listed in the bibliography.
- 5) Film: "Inside Islam," available at <http://video.barnesandnoble.com/DVD/Inside-Islam/e/733961706529/?itm=1>.
- 6) Film: "Inside Mecca," available at <http://video.barnesandnoble.com/DVD/National-Geographic-Inside-Mecca/Anisa-Mehdi/e/727994750420/?itm=1>.

COURSE NOTES AND OTHER MATERIALS:

This class takes place within the context of Defend 2019. Each student is expected to listen to live or by mp3 all sessions of Defend. The honor system is employed to evaluate participation in non-Islamic studies sessions. However, each Islamic topic for break-out or plenary will have a quiz posted shortly after the session is completed. Students in this course must take all of these quizzes.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

1. Reading

Students are expected to read all the assigned texts.

2. Quizzes

Quizzes will cover the material in each Islamic session of Defend 2019. Quizzes are 15 minutes in length. Quizzes must be taken any time before Feb 1, 2019.

3. Research Paper

Every student will write a paper to engage in in-depth research. The paper should be at least 20 pages, with at least 15 sources. Each student must submit a research paper proposal sheet to have his or her topic approved by the week after mid-term. The topic approval sheet must contain the student's name, paper title, thesis, and 15 sources. The same sources used in the research proposal should be used for the research paper. Research papers may be submitted via e-mail to the professor.

4. Book Review

Students should complete 2 books reviews. Each book review should be approximately 10 pages, double spaced. Students can select a book from the list that is attached to the syllabus. If a student wishes to review a book that is not listed on the syllabus, the student must seek the approval of the instructor before the mid-term test. Reviews are to be done in Turabian style. The first half of the report should be summary of the contents and the last half should be a critical review of the book including examination of the author's biases, strengths, weaknesses, audience, and personal insights or extrapolations. Book reviews may be submitted via email on Blackboard or as an email attachment directly to the professor.
